

RATINGS REPORT

RATINGS RESULTS – SURVEY WEEK 21 Sunday May 21 – Saturday May 27, 2006

The Nine Network last week secured its fourth consecutive national ratings win, claiming victory in Week 21 with an impressive 31.6 per cent All People share.

Nine's winning ways continued in Sydney where the Network won its seventh straight week with a 34.4 per cent share - the largest weekly share scored by any Sydney station this year (excluding Commonwealth Games).

Nine's Sydney result also marks the biggest winning margin by any Sydney station this year (excluding Commonwealth Games), with nearest rival, Seven, trailing by a massive 10.1 points on 24.3 while Ten was third and even further behind on 20.1.

Nine was also first along the East Coast as the PBL-owned Nine stations won with a conclusive 33.2 per cent share. In Melbourne Nine scored its 11th consecutive win scoring an All People share of 31.7 per cent.

Fired up by the first State Of Origin clash, Nine's Brisbane station finished the week in front with 33.9 per cent, the biggest weekly share scored in Brisbane so far this year (excluding Commonwealth Games).

Nine was also first in the key advertiser-friendly 25-54 demographic last week and scored impressive wins in the 16-39 demographic along the East Coast.

In the 25-54s, Nine was first Nationally with a 32.5 per cent share, and also won along the East Coast (34.1) as well as in Sydney (35.3), Melbourne (33.2) and Brisbane (33.7).

In the 16-39s, Nine won the week on East Coast with a 32.1 per cent share and also scored dominant wins in Sydney (32.8) and Brisbane (33.6).

The most-watched program on Australian television for Week 21 was Nine's special presentation of The Great Escape, which averaged 2.790 million viewers, cementing it as the most-watched program on Australian television so far this year outside Nine's exclusive telecast of the Commonwealth Games.

A peak of audience of 3.037 million were captivated as mining heroes Todd Russell and Brant Webb told their story to A Current Affair host Tracy Grimshaw.

Nine's exclusive broadcast of the first game of the Rugby League State Of Origin was the most-watched program in Sydney with an average of 940,000 viewers.

Nationally, Nine had five of the Top 10 programs, as Sunday night staple 60 Minutes scored its second biggest result for 2006 with 2.040 million viewers. State Of Origin Rugby League NSW v QLD 1st, National Nine News Sunday and 20 To 1-RPT were also Top 10 placegetters.
