Deferred Settlement Trading:

Shareholders may trade in Company shares during the deferred settlement period. However shareholders who elected either Maximum Share Consideration or Maximum Cash Consideration will not be able to ascertain their exact allocation of Company shares until Monday, 10 December 2007. As a result, shareholders should be cautious of selling Company shares on ASX during the deferred settlement period before their exact allocation can be ascertained. Shareholders should refer to section 5.8 of the PBL Scheme booklet for further information about the risks of deferred settlement trading in these circumstances.

For further information please refer to the PBL Scheme Booklet dated 17 October 2007.
