CHANGES PBL ENTERPRISES DIVISION

SYDNEY: Publishing and Broadcasting Limited (ASX: PBL) advised today it has reorganised its PBL Enterprises division following the departure of James McLachlan, Chief Executive Officer, PBL Enterprises and Group General Counsel.

Mr McLachlan has been an executive of the PBL Group for 13 years, initially as General Counsel for the Nine Network Australia. Following a period of ill health this year he is departing PBL but will continue to be associated with the company as a consultant.

Guy Jalland, a qualified lawyer and senior executive with Consolidated Press Holdings for the past 6 years, will become the PBL Group General Counsel. Anthony Klok will lead the PBL Enterprises business while retaining his current position as Business Development Director.

Mr McLachlan said "I have had a wonderful decade with PBL during which I have been intimately involved in all major transactional activity of the group, and am proud to have established PBL Enterprises as a profitable division of the company. I have very much enjoyed working closely with James Packer under whose dynamic leadership PBL will continue to prosper."

James Packer said "I thank James for his valuable contribution to PBL and I wish him every success for the future."
