RATINGS RESULTS – SURVEY WEEK 43 Sunday, October 16 – Saturday, October 22, 2005

THE Nine Network's dominant programming, encompassing news and current affairs, sport, reality, light entertainment and drama drove Australia's Number One broadcaster to yet another ratings victory last week – its 29th this year.

Nine commanded a national All People market share of 30.8 per cent, compared with Seven's 28.3 while Ten was left languishing with just 19.6 per cent as its key programming towards the year's end failed to fire. Nine also won on the East Coast and in Sydney, Melbourne, Brisbane and Adelaide.

Nine was also once again number one in the key advertiser-friendly 25-54 demographic in every market, with a national market share of 32.1 per cent, while the PBL-controlled broadcaster also tied nationally with Ten to win that network's preferred 16-39 demographic with a 29 per cent share.

In Sydney, Nine was first in All People with a 30.2 per cent market share. In 25-54s the Channel was 3.2 points clear of its nearest rival Seven, victorious with a 30.8 per cent share.

Nationally, Nine's shows dominated the Top 10, taking out six spots with the Eddie McGuire-hosted Who Wants To Be A Millionaire the Network's number one program with an average of 1.812 million viewers tuning in to see Rob "Coach" Fulton's historic million-dollar win.

New program 20 To 1 was again a huge hit with viewers. The second episode of the countdown extravaganza featuring spectacular dummy spits increased its audience by 200,000 to attract 1.645 million viewers across the country.

Nine remains Australia's authority when it comes to news and current affairs featuring the most watched news bulletin and current affairs program of the week. National Nine News Sunday had an audience of 1.659 million viewers while 60 Minutes was watched by 1.531 million Australians. Seven's News was ranked well outside the Top 10.

The much-anticipated return of Celebrity Overhaul was embraced by Sunday night viewers with 1.419 million tuning in. That was the same amount who watched medical docu-drama RPA on Thursday night which was also one of the six Nine programs on the national leaders' board.

But there was still room for sport in the action packed Nine schedule. Game two of the Tri Nations Rugby League was a winner in Sydney, where it was the most-watched sporting event of the week with an average audience of 461,000 viewers. That compared with a mere 114,000 who watched Seven's Cox Plate coverage.
